To Whom It May Concern

Re: Stefan Gerber

I recently engaged Stefan to sell my apartment. I was most impressed with the background research he conducted on similar properties, which was fully vindicated when it came to the actual sale of my own property.

His strategy for selling was most excellently thought out and resulted in a final sale several thousands over the asking price.

Stefan has a forthright and engaging personality, being unfailingly conscientious in arranging showing times and advising me of the necessary decor touches to enhance the sale. His dedication and efficiency in the selling process is of the highest order, resulting in a very fast sale indeed.

I enthusiastically endorse Mr Gerber in the highest possible terms for his professionalism, and would not hesitate to recommend him to anyone when considering selling their property.
